

Style

THE SUMMER ISSUE

ON THE MOVE

Layers lend ease to our most unpredictable season.

Page 4

Wish List
Brass baubles dress up any ensemble.
Page 2

The List
Beach house reads for fashion fans.
Page 8

Destination
Beauty deals to get you glowing.
Page 9

Observed
When convenience is just a swipe away.
Page 10

COVER STORY

MOVING INTO SUMMER

Photography by Stephen Lam

This San Francisco summer, embrace two of the hottest motifs of the spring runways: That certain flowing drape, and that relaxed but refined shape. After several body-conscious seasons of constricting silhouettes, it's no wonder women want more flexibility in their wardrobes. It's time to move with all the fluidity of the clothes of the season. Whether looking to local labels like Harputs Own or to designers born in S.F. but based in New York, like Derek Lam, simplicity is the key. Keep the line clean and free from clutter that will only weigh you down. Jump into bold black and white while the fabric swirls around you. Leap into separates or grab that easy-breezy dress and go. Banish entropy. Fine-tune your bay bohemianism with sparsity. Embrace fashion unbound.

— Tony Bravo, tbravo@sfgate.com

Back in black:
Harputs Own black
Pamper dress, $325,
Harputs, 109 Geary St.,
S.F.; Céline booties,
$870, Barneys New York, S.F.

Doubling up: Maria Cornejo dress, $950, Barneys New York, S.F., over Harputs Own white Pamper dress (worn as skirt) $325, Harputs, 109 Geary St.; Birkenstock sandals $250, Barneys New York, S.F.

In motion: Maria Cornejo white dress, $750, and Maria Cornejo black bolero jacket, $850; Céline sneakers, $670, all Barneys New York, S.F.

CREDITS

Styling: Suchandra Bullock

Hair & makeup: David Tolls / Workgroup

Model: Yujin Kim / Alonzo King Lines Ballet

Photo assistant: Emma Chiang

Styling assistant: Danielle Gaito

Jump shot: Harputs
Own black drape
dress, $475, Harputs,
109 Geary St., S.F.;
Céline sneakers, $670,
Barneys New York, S.F.